If you feel like you and your partner are in desperate need of alone time, you're probably right! And nothing's more romantic than a weekend away with your love — especially when we've picked the coziest B&B's, restaurants, and activities for you to enjoy together. Choose a destination, pack your bag, and reignite your relationship. We won't blame you if you never want to come home.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

The perfect trip for history buffs or any couple just trying to soak up New England charm without having to drive far from a major airport. Fill your S'well bottle up with wicked good wine (Shh! You didn't get that advice here) and go for a stroll along the Freedom Trail or if you like to take your sites sitting down, the duck tours are always delightful (and, you know, the couple that quacks together ...) Then share a chowdah at Island Creek Oyster Bar and take in a Red Sox game. Not a fan of rowdy crowds? Hotel Commonwealth, conveniently situated in Kenmore Square offers a Fenway Park Suite with views of the stadium so you can sip your Sam Adams without having to leave your cozy room.
